RELIGIOUS HISTORY RESEARCH GUIDE

This guide provides an overview of a wide variety of published resources on Washington’s religious history that are available in the Research Library. Following reference books and general works on Washington’s religious history, the bibliography is arranged alphabetically by denomination, followed by general works on the denomination and then an alphabetical listing of resources on individual churches. Works on ecumenical churches and Jewish houses of worship are included among the alphabetical denominational listing. The library also holds manuscripts and archives, maps, newspaper clipping files, ephemera, prints, and photographs of interest for religious history research. Please consult the library’s online catalog at <http://www.historydc.org>. Additional questions may be directed to library staff at library@historydc.org.

For published materials, the library generally uses Library of Congress classification, with some exceptions. Call numbers consisting of a “P” followed by a number are in-house cataloging references to the library’s collection of pamphlets and booklets that are not currently cataloged using Library of Congress classification. Items identified as “reports” include student papers, essays, and lectures.
