AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY RESEARCH GUIDE

This guide includes references to published and some primary source materials of interest for African American history research that are available in the Kiplinger Research Library. Titles may be listed under more than one subject heading. The library holds other manuscripts and archives, maps, newspaper clipping files, ephemera, prints, and photographs that may be of interest for researching Washington's African American community. Please consult the library's online catalog at <http://www.historydc.org/>. Additional questions may be directed to library staff at library@historydc.org.

For published materials, the library generally uses Library of Congress classification, with some exceptions. Call numbers consisting of a "P" followed by a number are in-house cataloging references to the library's collection of pamphlets and booklets that are not currently cataloged using Library of Congress classification. Items identified as "reports" include student papers, essays, and lectures.
