BUSINESS HISTORY RESEARCH GUIDE

The following guide provides an overview of a wide variety of published resources on Washington’s business history that are available in the Research Library. The list includes general information and guides as well as articles and publications on specific businesses or types of business. The library also holds manuscripts and archives, maps, newspaper clipping files, ephemera, prints, and photographs of interest for business history research. Please consult the library’s online catalog at http://www.historydc.org. Additional questions may be directed to library staff at library@historydc.org.

The library generally uses Library of Congress classification, with some exceptions. Call numbers consisting of a “P” followed by a number are in-house cataloging references to the library’s collection of pamphlets and booklets that are not currently cataloged using Library of Congress classification. Items identified as “reports” include student papers, essays, and lectures.
